B. CLUMBER MEN ARE PROTESTING STRONGLY

Against American Lumber Being "Dumped" Duty Free Into Alberta—Lumbermen Thus, to Examine American Companies.

Nelson, B.C., Oct. 3.—That it will be necessary for the production of the mountain lumber mills to be considerably curtailed for the remaining months of 1910, that the existing prices will be maintained, and that drastic measures may be taken to meet the competition from the American lumbermen who are causing owing to the unprotected Canadian market to dump commodity lumber in the prairie provinces, were the decisions of greatest importance reached at the convention of the mountain lumbermen's association held yesterday. The meeting was one of the largest and best attended ever held in the city, and most of the great lumber manufacturing companies were represented. The demand for lumber has suffered a serious slump during the past sixty days and while the British Columbia mountain mills enjoyed a record business during the first six months of the year, the drop in the market was followed by a very marked decrease in the demand for the product. The output for the month of September was at the mill capacity of the mountain mills.

Protection Demanded.
The question of the lack of protection from the dumping of low-grade American lumber in the prairie provinces was taken up. It was decided that a committee should be appointed to go fully into the matter and report upon the best means to be adopted for the protection of the interests of the association. A prominent lumber manufacturer said the Canadian prairie provinces are made the dumping ground for poor lumber from the States mills. Manufacturers are now considering a scheme for meeting the condition which may involve a drastic departure from the established practice of wholesalers. It is well known that British Columbia is probably the best customer Alberta has for many of her products, and by the profits of the lumber industry in this province the people of the prairie provinces gain far greater advantage than any other province secure to them through having lumber on the free list.

Manufacturers of Explosives in Big Merge—Only One Free Company to the Continent—Practically All Canadian Companies Join.

Vancouver, B.C., Oct. 3.—Under the control of the Nobel and Dupont Powder corporation, owning large explosive manufacturing industries in Europe and the United States respectively, practically all the powder companies of Canada have been merged into a $10,000,000 combine. According to information given out here today, the only company not entering the merger is the giant powder company of San Francisco, owing a branch factory at Telegraph Bay, near Victoria. The name of the new corporation is the British-Canadian Explosives Limited. It has been incorporated under letters patent from the Dominion government. The companies entering the merger are the Inland Powder Company of Delaware, which has not previously operated in Canada; the Nobel corporation, owning many mills in Europe; the Hamilton Powder company, with plants in eastern Canada, and one at Nanaimo, B.C.; the Western Explosives, Limited, owning a plant at Bowen Island, ten miles from here; the Ontario Powder company, with plants in the explosives, limited, both of the latter being eastern concerns. Half a dozen representatives of the merging companies are now in the city on their way to inspect the plants at Nanaimo and Bowen Island.

MUST GET PASSPORTS AND PAY HEAD TAX

Some of the Chinese Detained at Vancouver Have Not Proper Certificates—Others Carry Worthless Cheques.

Ottawa, Oct. 2.—Deputy Minister of Trade and Commerce has been notified that the enquiry as to Chinese frauds now going on at Vancouver show that some of the Chinese detained were holders of certificates alleged to have been issued by Chinese officials for which they paid 1,300 Mexican dollars. In some instances they had bogus drafts and worthless cheques, many of an amount sufficient to establish their status under the Chinese immigration act. It is provided that certificates in Chinese cannot be recognized. They must be in French or English. The department, in view of these circumstances, has advised the deputy collector of customs, who is conducting the inquiry, that the proper certificates must furnish them and pay a poll tax of $500 or be deported to China.

29 SAILORS DROWNED 18 OTHERS MISSING

Were Returning to Batavia by Ship—Hampshire at New York When Barge Swamped—Into Snell of Passing Steamer.

New York, Oct. 2.—Captain Rogers of the battleship New Hampshire places the number of sailors who perished last night in the swamping of a barge at 29. 18 others are missing, but it is supposed that they merely overboard their shoes later. Various versions of how the accident occurred were in circulation today. The generally accepted one, however, was that the barge, heavily loaded with sailors and marines returning from shore leave, was towed into the heavy swell of a passing steamer. Rising for a moment to a cork, the barge then plunged into the trough between two waves, one of which broke over the side and swamped it. Instantly the cargo water became dotted with struggling, shouting men, intermingled with floating packages, suit cases and personal belongings that the men were taking back to the ship. Two waves of the little steam barge, that was towing the barge rent the air with whistling suction, and the crew of two boats were in the vicinity for the river was running high and white caps were kicked up by the strong wind. What few there were, were put into the water. The 29 sailors and marines were killed or separated the distressed craft and the shore. Nine of the sailors and marines were pulled aboard those boats. Others held tightly to the swamped barge. Still others, unequal to the battle with the heavy waves and tide, floated up stream and disappeared.

TWO MEN KILLED BY CYCLONE IN MONTREAL

Montreal, Oct. 2.—A storm of cyclonic dimensions struck the city late Saturday afternoon, noon, over an inch of rain falling in fifteen minutes. Rain, lightning, and wind which reached the velocity of sixty miles an hour, compelled the total cessation of business and the telegraph and telephone services. Two laborers, Jas. Turner and Thos. Redden, were at a work of erecting a stone crusher at a scaffolding, when a gust of wind blew down the scaffolding. Turner being instantly killed, while Redden succumbed moments later. A horse and rig were blown into the harbor, and a white Roadster succumbed moments later. Several roofs were blown down, several roofs were demolished and a number of windows blown in, with a number of minor injuries to persons.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—In support of charges that the election of Senator Lohmeyer had been tainted by bribery and corruption at least two of the witnesses, representative C.H. White and Heckmeyer, already heard by the senatorial investigation committee, are to be recalled to the stand tomorrow. The subpoenas for Minority Leader Brown, state Senator John Broderick and Representative Robt. Wilson, who are directly accused of having paid other legislators had not been served late today although it was unofficially supposed that Mr. Browne and Senator Broderick would probably appear before the committee tomorrow or Tuesday.

What to Do With the Money.

London, Oct. 3.—Many rumors are floating regarding what the Canadian Pacific directors may do with the money they have just received. It is thought they will either form an extra dividend or hand it out to the shareholders. It is admitted the directors may do nothing, but is suggested that the shareholders are inclined to surrender everything to posterity.

WISCONSIN VILLAGE IN STATE OF GREAT ALARM

Male Populace Under Arms, Expecting Desperate Who Children Were Wounded and Captured, to Attack the Town.

Winter, Wis., Oct. 2.—"I'm coming in," was the statement made yesterday by Edith, the wife of Claren Dem, when he learned through a reporter of the Minneapolis Tribune that his eldest son and daughter had been shot and wounded and were now in the custody of the law, the boy in a cell in the county jail at Hayward, and the girl under guard in the desolate room in the Hotel Winter. Since Saturday afternoon Winter has been a village wrapped in fear. That any one man could be so greatly feared by a community of strong able-bodied men of the woods as to justify the measures taken by the sheriff, is nothing short of unheard of. Eighteen more men were deputized Sunday and given arms to protect the town against a strike-handed army by Edith. This led to the present curfew of twenty-five minutes, which were worn in the village Saturday almost completely the male population of the town. Although Clarence, the eldest son, was shot in the arm, was moved early last night to the county jail at Hayward, the armed men guarded the town hall, "being expected that this would be the object of a direct attack. At the head of the stairs in the Winter hotel and sitting in the doorway of the room in which Mary, the wounded girl, is confined in bed, six more armed men have been stationed night and day. Outside of the building men are posted on every corner. Hereafter, these men have feared Edith because they knew he was a man who feared no one, now know that they are justified in increasing their fear. Edith, however, these men have been shot and arrested. When Edith's own weapon, containing his son handkerchief and his daughter's unconscious and bleeding in the law, drove in town Saturday on a mad gallop, the deputy sheriff leaped out and informed that the child was expected right away as Lester, the boy who escaped the ambush had carried the news to him. Clarence, securely locked in a cell in the town hall and Mary, who was removed to the hotel, the town did not feel safe until Clarence had been away from Hayward. Although her condition is said to be extremely critical from the loss of blood in the back it is thought she will recover.
